Please answer the following questions thoughtfully and completely. Leave a blank line between each answer.

---

1. What does it mean to be created in the image of God—even at the level of a single cell?

2. How does Psalm 139:13 (“you knit me together in my mother’s womb”) connect to what you’ve learned about chromosomes and development in this investigation?

3. According to Jeremiah 1:5, how does God’s knowledge of us before birth shape how we view the sacredness of life?

4. St. John Paul II said the body reveals what is invisible—like the soul. How can something as small as a single cell or embryo reflect spiritual truth?

5. Choose two virtues from this list:
Wonder, Respect, Responsibility, Gratitude, Stewardship, Courage, Compassion.
For each, explain how understanding how human life begins can help you grow in that virtue.
